The Live To Ski Camp is a high-end ski mountaineering and big mountain camp for experienced backcountry skiers. Set in the heart of the Tetons, the camp will involve climbing and skiing some of the most classic lines in the United States led in small teams by Exum's highest level ski guides.

To ensure that participants have the adequate level of experience, all candidates' applications will be individually reviewed by the lead guides. Listed below are the prerequisites for the Live to Ski Camp. Along with this form, please submit a 1-page resume/letter that lists 3 or more backcountry descents which demonstrate proficiency with the following skills:

1. Ability to carry out 5,000 vertical foot climbs in ski terrain.
2. Familiarity with the use of a single ice axe and crampons.
3. Comfortable with a variety of turn styles including jump turns on slopes up to 45 degrees.
4. Familiarity with the use of a harness and basic knots (figure eight follow through and overhand on a bight).
5. Minimum of Level 1 Avalanche Course, as well as 3 years Backcountry experience, prior to start of the course

If you have ANY questions about your readiness for the camp, do not hesitate to email us at exum@exumguides.com. We will happily help you figure out if this is the right camp for you.
